Sowing and Reaping. During the past week no occurrence has so shocked the public sense and so thoroughly aroused indignation and pity, as the Devison tragedy. It is not the province of a religious paper to repeat in its columns the heart-rending details of the affair so ac-I say there are some such people in this curately and minutely given in the great tity but they are, as yet, a few. There are now 400 students in the art classes of Protless who are said to be displaying conference industry and a fair degree of zeal and ability in the pursuit of their studies. Doubtless among these some will do some. The Old, Old Story "which for whitecurately and minutely given in the great department of this paper we may venture to both philosophize and moral ize on the case. The Dallas Herald printed an editorial under the caption "The Old, Old Story," which for ability soundness of principle and beauty of expression, might well be preserved as a gem in the classics of ages to come. True it is a story old as humanity, which keeps on repeating itself, and for which no type of civilization or culture of society has found a preventive. It is something more; than a mere incident, for which there is no discernable cause, something more than an effervescence of spontaneity, whose indefinable lines lie beyond the confine of human phylosophy. It is con-cernable cause, something more than an effervescence of spontaneity, whose indefinable lines lie beyond the confline of human phylosophy. It is an invariable result, the effect and product of a law immutable, inevitable and enternal as the constitution of nature. The most ignorant classes have some proper knowledge of this law, while many of the most intelligent retuse to be instructed in its nature or submit to its application in the higher departments of life where its penalties graduate into scenes and as the Denison tragedy. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap. A harvest of sorrow and death, or a harvest of happiness and life is the invariable and necessary product of the sowing. Neither prestige of family name, nor wealth, nor approved respectability, single or combined can choke out the harvest, any more than they can suspend the lighting in the cloud. Is Your Blood Pure?

For impure blood the best medicine known is Rosadalis. It is the great souther a true remedy, and may be implicitly relied on when everything else fails. Take it in the spring time especially, for the impure secretions of the blood incident to that season of the year; and take it at all times for cancer, scrofula, liver complaints, weakness, boils, tumors, swellings, skin diseases, malaria and the thousand ills that come from impure blood.

To insure a cheerful disposition take Rosadalis, the great southern remedy, which will remove the prime cause and restore the mind to its natural equilibrium.

The Dallas Board of Trada will. without embarrassment to themselves

The Dallas Board of Trade will meet their many triends and the public at al hours of the day or night at their magnifi-cent saloon and billiard hall, corner of Main and Austin streets, with the best wines, liquors and cigars, and polite at-tendance. Their billiard hall is the finest and largest in the city, and their tables are new and second to none in the state. When you want a good drink or cigar don't forget the Board of Trade.

Of Valuable Real Estate in the City of Dalias
AT AUCTION,

By Hugh Blakeny, (fine, very fine) auctioneer, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp, June 21, 1883, will be sold to the highest bidder at my auction house, No. 705, Main street, the following desirable building lots, sixteen lots fronting on Ervay street, near the terminus of the Ervay street railway, tifty feet front each:

Ore acre of land sdjoining the above.

Three desirable lots on Commerce street, east of the H. & T. C. R. R.
One acre of land located in that beautiful locality known as the old fair grounds.

A Card.
You are invited to call at my photoart studio, 705 Main street, nearly opposite the St. George hotel, and critically examine my productions in photography. I offer to the public an experience of over twenty-five years of constant labor, with the advantages of the finest city associations in perfecting this beautiful art.
Photography is not mechanism but an art, and he who would be successful must have a love for the beautiful and endeavor, by a happy blending of light and shade and tine posing, to produce a beautiful picture.
The time has passed for any person to accept of a caricatured outline map of their features with a lifeless expression. On the contrary, you should accept only those fine photos, beautiful in light and shadow, easy in position and intelligent in expression; full in detail, a thing of life. This is the style of work you can always receive from my hands. My work on exhibition is of my own creation. I do not copy but lead, and all who place themselves under my management in my studio shall be artistically and intelligently represented.
